ART DECO

PARIS

The couturier Paul Poiret was giving revolutionary fashion to the world at the beginning of the 20th century. His influence went beyond fashion alone: he tried to make a 'gesamtwerk' and surrounded himself with artists, architects and other creators that would help him to develop and promote his creations. He worked with Raoul Dufy, Erté, Georges Lepape, Paul Iribe, Maillat-Stevens and Man Ray and he liked to buy modern work from Brancusi, Robert Delaunay and Kees van Dongen.

14th of October

As we are working on the creation of a society Art Deco Holland, we have been given a limited number of invitations to the grand opening of this exhibition on the 14th of October (19.30-22.00). Dress code: thousand and one night. If you wish to participate please let me know before the 7th of October so I can arrange your application. Number of places are limited. Free of charge.

28th of October

As the weekend of the opening does not fall in the same weekend as our Dinner in the Steamtrain we will be visiting the exhibition again in style on the Saturday the 28th of October. We will gather at 11.00 at the entrance of the museum. You can get your own ticket at the entrance.

STEAMTRAIN –FULLY BOOKED

BEEKBERGEN

In Beekbergen we will gather at 15.00 at the old station in Beekbergen. Here we will have some time to visit the museum with its old workplace, the old building of the station, the authentic offices, and the machinery. At 16.30 the train leaves from this station. We will have dinner in the original 1927 wagon. We are (as of today) with a group of 14 people. There is space for a maximum of 24 people. Tickets (€ 89,- per person) are still available. Please contact us for the right procedure to be placed at our table(s).

We have decided to go for evening dress for during the dinner. If you want to change from day dress to evening dress, that's great, but it will have to be in one of the toilets at the station/ train, so not the most convenient, but worth a try.

The train will be back at the station around 20.30. The menu is a three course menu including coffee, tea and water. 'Wild' means game and the like. Perhaps not suitable for vegetarians, nor for dietary requests.

Address:

Museumstation Beekbergen

Dorpstraat 140

7361 AZ Beekbergen

Parking (free) next to old station building.

Sleeping

After the train ride we will hire a villa (bed & breakfast) for those who wish to stay close to this area. Price: around € 60,- p.p. including breakfast. There is one double bedroom, and two single bedrooms left (17-10-2017).

RAADHUIS DUDOK

HILVERSUM

Join us for a guided tour in the 'Raadhuis' of Dudok where we will visit the building inside and climb the tower and enjoy the view, combined with a visit to the architectural centre and a second guided (walking) tour (2 hours) which focuses on the architecture of 'Bloemenbuurt-Hilversum'.

Because it is a Monday and people will have to go back to work, this option is only available by a minimum of 8 participants for guided tour number 1 (interieur and tower) and 8 participants for guided tour number 2.

Prices:

Guided tour number one and architecture centre: € 20,- p.p.

Guided tour number two € 22,50

We are looking forward to hearing from you soon as we will be delighted to welcome you in the Netherlands for a moment in time where you will be thrilled, hopefully surprised and certainly at ease in good company during
